St. Louis, Mo.

Dear Sir:

I have your letter at hand that you wrote Mule Suttles last year inquiring about playing with the Newark Eagles Baseball Club. I am the owner of the Club and am writing at this time to find out if you are still interested in playing with us.

I am trying to get our roster lined up for the coming season, therefore I would appreciate if you would reply immediately if you are interested in going to Training Camp with us, or whether you are connected up with some other Club, or if you are contemplating not playing baseball at all this year.

We have not set a definite date as yet to go in training, but we will know in a few days just the exact date we are leaving, and will be glad to inform you.

Mule is still with the Club.

Trusting to hear from you by return mail.

Very truly yours,
